With over a decade of experience in the beauty industry, Whitney's true passion has always come alive when she's had the chance to share her knowledge with both clients and fellow hair stylists. Her resume of experience includes working behind the chair in different salon types, salon management, multi-unit salon leadership as well as technical and operations training for a few of the industry's largest franchise corporations. Currently she's living out her longtime dream of owning her own salon studio along with educating for SexyHair Concepts. While fusing her talent for both hairdressing and devotion to education, she feels truly blessed to get to do what she loves. She has her sights set on leaving a legacy in this field and helping other stylists do the same. She looks forward to sharing the journey with you!
